Represented by

Prof. Dr. Kai Fischbach

President of the University of Bamberg

and

UNIVERSITY OF PAVIA

Department of Economics & Management

Via San Felice 5

Pavia

Represented by

Prof. Eduardo Rossi

Head of the Department

The partners agree on the following changes to the original agreement (Addendum to the International Framework Cooperation Agreement) signed in December 2016:

Changes to Art. 1 Attributable Titles

The following two titles are added to the list of attributable titles:

- for the Department of Economics and Management of the University of Pavia: Economics and Business Legislation (MELI)
- for the Department of Social Sciences, Economics and Business Administration of the University of Bamberg: Master in Finance and Accounting

The study programs underlying the DDP will be monitored through adequate measures of quality management. The University of Pavia has a system accreditation including an internal system for quality insurance. The University of Bamberg has a system accreditation, the Master of Business Sciences and the Master Finance and Accounting passed the internal accreditation in the summer term 2018.

Changes to Art. 2 Legal framework

The following legal document is added to Art. 2:

- StuPo MA Finance & Accounting

Changes to Art. 5 Educational requirements of the student

The current Art. 5 of the contract is replaced with the following:

The cooperation during the second cycle is based on mutual recognition of the first cycle of university studies. Students fulfil the current requirements of the aspired program at the home and the host University, defined in the legal documents named in Art. 2. Partners inform each other about changes in the requirements at least 6 month in advance. The nomination letter, which the home University sends according to Art. 4, contains a confirmation that the student fulfils the requirements of the host University.

The current addendum is to be valid after signature by both institution legal representatives.
