UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE

Slovakia takes pride in its UNESCO heritage: 8 sites including historic towns, natural wonders. Slovakia boasts the 3rd highest number of well-preserved castles from the 13th to 17th centuries in the world.

NATURE

The Carpathian Mountains dominate Slovakia, with the High Tatras National Park offering stunning peaks like Gerlachovský štít (2 655 m).

ACCESSIBILITY

Slovakia is an easily accessible country, with 2 international airports in Bratislava and Košice. Vienna, Austria is just a short drive from Bratislava (60 km). The country is also well-connected by train and bus to neighboring countries.

BRATISLAVA

Bratislava is the largest city in Slovakia, serving as the country's administrative, cultural, and economic center.

With 14 universities, Bratislava is a dynamic student hub attracting over 30,000 students from all around the world.

Bratislava is home to a diverse range of companies, including global tech giants like Dell, Lenovo, IBM, and ESET, as well as BIG4 accounting firms PwC, EY, KPMG, and Deloitte.

Bratislava has one UNESCO site. Roman Limes - Danube Limes. This site includes the remains of the Roman military camps Gerulata in Bratislava-Rusovce.

Fun fact: Bratislava (368km) covers a larger area than Paris (126 km).
